cood, the present Mayor or who tall the welfare and good government of our city, haleful or the welfare and good
government of our city, haleful would peesent of success to such a cereer, and in every respect discreditable to our people; and whereas, as the first means of securing a referm in the administration of our municipal affaira, and restoring good government to our city, it is necessary to elect an honest man to the office of Mayor; and whereas, there is a universal desire expressed not only among democrats, but also by their opponents, that the votes of all who are hostile to the success of Fernando Wood, should be concentrated on one caudidate, in order to render the defeast he is certain to encounter overwhelming and final.
